Dear Jim,

I was just reminded of the coming British TV special on King and that reminded me of the situation with Tony Summers.

I've kept you informed, with copies and I don't know what you remember.

Belatedly, when I insisted that he had not lived up to the agreement and thus had no rights under it, he got after his agent, who had done nothing at all.

Then the agent wrote me and asked me if I had made any other arrangements and was my work still available, and I wrote him it was and I'd made no other arrangements.

That was quite some time ago. I've heard nothing from him sience.

I avoid making any interpretation of this for you but do not hide that it is in my belief consistent entirely with the conclusion I'd reached quite some time ago.

I just sealed an envelope to you so this will await the next time I have something to mail.

Thanks for Green's not unexpectable modification of her Order.

Best,

Harold
